Re: United States v. Changpeng Zhao, No. CR 23-179 (RAJ)(BAT)

Dear Judge Jones:

We represent Changpeng Zhao in the above-referenced action. We respectfully submit this letter to seek permission for Mr. Zhao to travel to the United Arab Emirates (“UAE”) beginning January 4, 2024 for one to four weeks. This time period would allow Mr. Zhao to be present for the hospitalization and surgery of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] subsequent recovery period. As detailed below, [REDACTED] surgery is scheduled for January 5, 2024 at [REDACTED] in Abu Dhabi. Mr. Zhao pleaded guilty on November 21, 2023 and has been on bail subject to a bond entered that same day, as modified by this Court on December 7, 2023.¹

With the Court’s permission, Mr. Zhao will provide his itinerary and all relevant additional information to Pretrial Services for the Western District of Washington (“WDWA Pretrial Services”) prior to his departure. He will report his arrival to the WDWA Pretrial Services officer immediately upon his return.

With regard to the medical procedure, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is scheduled to undergo [REDACTED]

¹ Under the Court’s conditions, as modified by the December 7, 2023 Order, Mr. Zhao posted a $175 million personal recognizance bond, secured by two guarantors with cash pledges of $100,000 and $250,000, respectively, and a third guarantor with real property located in Los Angeles, California, valued in excess of $5 million. ECF No. 33. Mr. Zhao also previously wired an additional $15 million to the United States that is held in the trust account of his Seattle-based attorney. See ECF No. 34, at 5 (“$15 million in security custodied with [Mr.] Zhao’s counsel”). This Court has further ordered that Mr. Zhao “remain in the continental United States during the period between his plea and sentencing” and is “free to travel within the United States.” ECF No. 46.

on January 5, 2024. The procedure was originally scheduled for December 19, 2023, but was postponed to January 5 because [REDACTED]. The procedure will require general anesthesia, a minimum of six hours of recovery in the hospital, and an estimated post-surgery recovery period of two weeks. We have provided a statement from [REDACTED] Dr. [REDACTED] at Exhibit A. [REDACTED]

Due to ongoing family commitments in the UAE, [REDACTED] Mr. Zhao's partner and their children are unable to travel to the United States in the time period before sentencing.

If the Court is unable to permit Mr. Zhao to reside at home in the UAE for the full extent of this requested time, he respectfully requests that he be permitted to return home for the surgery and initial recovery period, specifically January 4 through January 11, 2024.

If necessary to address any concerns the Court may have about this travel and to ensure that he is able to be with [REDACTED] and family during this important period, Mr. Zhao is prepared to provide significant additional property and financial security to assure his timely return, including pledging all of his equity in Binance US, which was worth $4.5 billion in the last round of fundraising 2 years ago.

The Government has not consented to this request. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
